CAROLINA GOING AT OLD SPEED NOW

Defeats Kentucky and Is Ready to Face Virginia Friday.

[Special to The Times-Disputch.]
Chapel Hill, N. C., April 19.—One to nothing tells the tale of Carolina's victory over the State University of Kentucky here this afternoon, in a nothing tells the tale of Carolina's victory over the State University of Kentucky here this afternoon, in a fast and pretty game. It was a pitchers' battle, with credit even. Each pitcher yielded two hits, and struck out nine men. Hedgepeth was in the best form that he has shown this eeason, and his team mates gave him gilt-edged support at critical moments. Hillemeyer also pitched great ball. He is one of the best Carolina has faced. The only goore was made in the eighth. Bivens hit to right for three bases, and Rose executed a perfect squeeze play that sent him home, with the game.

The features of the game, aside from the work of both batteries, were the hitting of Bivens, who secured Carolina's only safeties, and the sharp fielding of both teams. Hackney, Bivens and Rose covered the whole outer garden. Carolina is now going at her ascustomed swift gait. The team leaves to-morrow for Davidson, where it meets Davidson College Thursday for the second of a series.

Thursday night it takes a sleeper out of Charlotte for Charlottesville, where the third of the series with Virginia will be played Friday. Stewart has not yet fully recovered from the injury sustained in the Guilford game, but will be in shape for Friday's game. The student body has great hopes of the outcome of the Northern trip.

Despite the loss of the two most important games on the schedule. Coach Lawson and his men have not let up a minute. Davidson, Virginia, Georgetown, Washington and Lee and the Navy will find Carolina going at full speed.
